

J. J. School Of Art

Five per cent. of admissions to the J. J. School of Art, Bombay, have been reserved for candidates belonging to the Backward Classes.

However, seats remaining vacant on account of absence of Backward Class candidates seeking admission will be given to non-Backward Class candidates in each course of studies.

All such Backward Class candidates seeking admission to any course at the School will have to undergo an admission test.

Pakistani Envoy

By A Staff Reporter

Mr. Ghazanfar Ali Khan, Pakistan's High Commissioner in India, left Bombay for Delhi by air on Sunday.

Mr. Raj Bahadur, Union Deputy Minister for Communications, arrived in Bombay from Bangalore on a two-day visit to the city.

Constitution Copy

"The Times of India" News Service

NEW DELHI, January 22: Reproductions of a calligraphed copy of the Indian Constitution are expected to be on sale shortly. The calligraphy and floral borders on each page were made under the direction of the well-known artist, Mr. Nandalal Bose.

India purchased an estimated 3,35,000 bushels of United States Pacific Coast white Wheat, and is in the market for a similar quantity for February-March shipment, and also for 10,000 tons of United States flour, says a New York message.