

Transfer Of Power To Indians

BRITISH LIBERALS' SUPPORT

LONDON, April 10: A resolution giving unqualified endorsement to the British Labour Government's decision to hand over India to Indians will be one of several on India moved at the National Assembly of the British Orthodox Liberal Party at Bournemouth from Wednesday to Sunday of next week.

The resolution, to be moved by the Westminster Branch of the party, says: "The Liberal Party welcomes the Government's decision to hand over India to Indians."

The Kelghley (Yorkshire) branch will move a resolution on the following terms: "This assembly supports the principle of leaving India at some specific date, but feels that the chosen date is early and that it should be stated that we will not stay after the date chosen unless requested to say by the Indian legislature."

The Orthodox Liberal Party has only about ten members in Parliament, but it is claimed to represent several millions of votes in the country. Those who will take part in the discussions of the resolutions include the party leader, Mr. Clement Davies, Lord Samuel, Lady Violet Bonham Carter and Lady Meghan Lloyd George, daughter of the late Earl Lloyd George. —Reuter.

Minorities In Sind

From Our Own Correspondent

HYDERABAD (Sind): Communal riots had not occurred in Sind because the Muslim majority was in absolute power and had "prostrated the minorities who, however, had submitted meekly to being ousted gradually from trade, the services and agricultural lands and had done nothing to deprive the majority of this power which they had deplorably misused," stated Prof. Ghulam Jethanand, M.L.A., leader of the Opposition in the Sind Legislature, addressing a public meeting here on the conclusion of the "National Week".

Mr. Khalid M. Ghand, President of the Indian Merchants' Chamber, was appointed a trustee of the People's March Hall, Bombay, at a meeting of the People's Provincial Congress Committee on Saturday evening.

The Bombay C.I.D. have arrested one person in connection with the murder of Mr. A. I. Smith, Working Member of the India United MUs (N. I), Bombay, who died in the R. E. M. Hospital on Thursday evening.
