

Assent for voting age Bill

NEW DELHI, March 30.

The President has given assent to the Constitution (61st Amendment) Bill, 1988, reducing the voting age to 18 years.

The measure, which was unanimously passed by Parliament and ratified by over a dozen State legislatures, would enfranchise about 47 million new voters aged 18 years and above.