

Jehovah's Witnesses' appeal upheld

NEW DELHI, Aug. 12.

The Supreme Court has allowed an appeal by three Kerala school students, belonging to the Jehovah's Witnesses, against their expulsion for not singing the National Anthem along with the other students in the morning assembly.

Setting aside the judgment of a Division Bench of the Kerala High Court which upheld the expulsion, the Supreme Court directed the authorities concerned to readmit the children in the school. The expulsion, the Court said, was violative of Fundamental Rights guaranteed by the Constitution.
